

Message notes for 12 May 2019

Series: Walking by Faith

Topic: The Simplicity of Faith. Genesis 4:1-16

Intro

- Direction
 - Same direction
 - A balanced walk
1. The advantage of slip roads
 2. The right sacrifice
 3. The wrong reaction to rebuke
 4. Sin is crouching at your door
 5. Jealousy the killer disease
 6. Do not feed the weeds
 7. The first murder
 8. The simplicity of faith
 9. Take the slip road

Notes

Digging deeper notes for 12 May 2019

Series: Walking by Faith

Topic: The Simplicity of Faith. Genesis 4:1-16

1. What stops us enjoying our walk with the Lord?
2. How can we have a balanced walk with God?
3. What is the advantage of slip roads? Feel free to share times when you took a slip road in your life.
4. Why is uncontrolled anger dangerous? (Genesis 4:6). Is there a place and a time for anger? (See Ephesians 4:26; James 1:20).
5. Why is jealousy a killer disease? Why was it pointless for Cain to get angry and jealous about his brother Abel? (Genesis 4:6,7)
6. Why is it important to stop sin developing in our hearts and minds? How can we do this? Why is backsliding so subtle?
7. Why does Genesis 4:7 say "You must master it....."?
- 8. Is there a slip road you need to take right now?